

POLICY ON BULLETIN BOARD USAGE

The bulletin boards of the Nanuet Public Library are made available for the display of information to the public that is educational, civic, musical, literary, historical, cultural or governmental in nature. Space will not be provided for the benefit of private individuals or groups for commercial, for profit, fund raising, religious, and partisan or political purposes.

The Library has the right to remove any announcements that do not meet the criteria as stated above.

September 1992
Revised April 28, 2009